LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Chowden Our .- Our Johnstown and Carcallown letters, the literary contribution of "Melusa," "Answers to Correspondents," adour "Roll of Honor," have been crowded set by the press of official advertisements on our columns this week. We hope to arange matters so as to give all a hearing is our next. To those of our patrons who have not yet paid their subscriptions we rould say that we have extended the time for accepting $2 as the price per year for our paper until after the June term of Ourt. All persons who do not pay on or before that time will be charged $2,50.

SEVERELY INJURED.—An account of the cident on the Penn's Rail Road, a short distance east of Wilmore, this county, will be found elsewhere. Among the injured we have not noticed the name of Mr. Rowland Humphreys, a resident of this place; yet his injuries are very severe, if net dangerous. his injuries are very severe, if not dangerous.

Mr. H. was thrown from the Express car, it is supposed, through a small window, and cut and bruised dreadfully. A clean cut extends over the crown of the head from ear to ear, through the scalp, but fortunately without any injury to the skull. One of his another the other is real.

The Press.—Our neighbor also alleges that certain blacks were pressed to take seats in the conservative convention at Nashville. Glad they have got the liberty of the press out there at last.

The Blair County Court last week granted tles was also badly sprained, and he received other contusions. What makes Mr. H.'s case the more distressing is the fact that his wife's health is in a very precarious condition, and but little hope is entertained of her recovery. The injured man, however, is being properly cared fer, and we are glad to learn that he is doing well. He was in the employ of the Adams' Express Company at the time of the accident, and had the good ease to obtain an accident insurance policy one time since, which entitles him to a making attended during his present affliction. reckly stipend during his present affliction.

PERSONAL.—The Smiths et al.—During a recent visit to Philadelphia we met two of this tribe—Capt. George N. and Dr. Wm. .-both formerly legislators from Cambria ounty. The Captain is the same earnest, dever fallow as of yore, and sings "Washgton was born," etc., just as well as ever. The Dr. is as firm a Democrat as in days respectable position in business and society. We found our whilom friend, George M. iddle, at his new business place, the house Wood, Marsh. Hayward & Co., where he Dr. Brallier, too, is at home to his friends he immense drug store of Ziegler & Smith.

We stopped at the Merchants' Hotel, the endquarters of Cambrians, where they are pecially cared for as such. We urge our iends visiting the city to give the Messis. McKibbin a call.

DAN RICE'S CIRCUS,-Notwithstanding ir turn out to witness the Prince of Clowns. That the performance was satisfactory we used scarcely add, as, with Dan Rice at the adm, it could not be otherwise. Indeed, to witness the performances of the beautiful ned horses was in itself worth the price admission. The horsemanship was good, the gymnastic feats well performed, and some of them new to the "ring," while the "Sahe more serious spectators. But, after all. the inimitable Dan Rice himself was the "ob-terved of all observers." His witty and good-humored home thrusts at the follies of mists, and his patriotic elequence, won gold-a opinions from all within the canvass. And while some decry the "great showman,"

Honor and shame from no condition rise; Act well your part-there all the honor lies, RAILBOAD ACCIDENT .- A serious accident curred on the Pennsylvania Railroad on eday evening of last week, near Wilmore Station, this county. It appears that as the Philadelphia Express train, which left Fittsburg at 4:20 Tuesday afternoon, was tached to it, a heavy land slide was enrecked. One of the engines was thrown them both considerably. The baggage cars and one of the passenger coaches were also wrecked, but the ballance of the train escaped injury. Samuel McNaught and James O'Rourke, the engineers, were thrown from the engines, but were not badly hurt. Mr. of Harrisburg, sustained a fracture of the left leg, and Thomas M'Greggor, of Philadelphia, was seriously bruised. The passugers escaped without injury.

Marchy.—A young man whose name in failed to learn was lodged in jail on Maday charged with stealing from A. S. Buthbone Esque of Jackson township. he stepped into the house of miles west of the turnpike, some six miles west of the turnpike, some six miles west of the the turnpike, some six miles west of the turnpike west of turnpike we the family, and, having consummated to act, escaped towards the railroad, where to was intercepted by the vigilance of Contable George, just as he was about to take the cars, and brought back to this place and the cars, and brought back to this place and Approbatory - The late radical legislature passed over 1600 acts. The Alleghanian, we are pleased to see, approves two of them.

One of these is to make juries political, half and half—the other to prehibit the exclusion of negroes from the Philadelphia street cars.

Death from Lightning.—In addition to the deaths from lightning of two cousins named Armstrong, in Westmoreland county, on the 24th ult., we notice that a man named Noah Armstrong was also killed in Fayette county, on the same day and in like man-rent setting in for the nomination of this distinguished jurist as the Democratic candidate for Supreme Judge. No Democratic lawyer that we know of could poll a larger vote—certainly no one could fill the position with more ability.

Literary.—We have received the Demo-cratic Almanac from its publishers, Van Evrie, Horton & Co., No. 162 Nassau street, New York. LETTER NUMBER ONE.

DEAR JOHNSOn-Am here in the city of "brotherly love" with the sole and exclusive purpose of furnishing you and, through you, the numerous and intelligent readers of the FREEMAN, with a sketch of matters and things transpiring in this beautiful city.

More especially am I here in the character of reporter, to enlighten you, beloved but benighted Cambrians, who not unfrequently
"branch" out to Gresson for the Philadelphia train, as well as those "northern hordes" who come down the Susquehanns, whole "rafts" at a time, as to the manner they are to deport themselves when, in "swinging around the circle," they find themselves in this village. And first as to Religion seems to be so well established here as to require but little attention. That great crime of running the Sunday cars has great crime of running the Sunday cars has been permanently disposed of, and the poor, thinly clad sinners, whose appearance at church is such a drawback upon pure devotional exercises, but rarely appear in the sacred buildings, owing to the distance from the factory to the church. Consequently, not only good order, but an appearance of easy respectability, is apparent in all the exercises in the temple of religion. The pious worshippers, reclining in their softly cushioned seats, have so much confidence in their venerable pastors that they incentithe remonstrances to the contrary notwithstanding.

Up-Hill—The Lewistown Gazette is defending the Radical Legislature from the attacks of the Radical press throughout the State. It has a very large contract for a cushioned seats, have so much confidence in their venerable pastors that they incontinently fall into a profound slumber while the glad tidings of redemption are showered upon their unconscious heads. And such is the habitual good breeding of these Christians that while nearly all sleep, snoring is rarely heard to disturb the solemnities of the occasion. I urged Edwards to accompany me to church, but he declined on the ground that he had come to the city "to get out of politics."

POLITICAL MATTERS. Politics, like business, is rather dull just now. The honesty and integrity of the lats Legislature is much talked of here in radical circles. The factory people, however, com-plain that the legislation was all in the in-terest of the "spinners." The colored peo-ple are a little disheartened from the fact The Dr. is as firm a Democrat as in days solicit bail. Why does he not be honest that Forney has left for Europe—and Massa about the matter, and call for the rope at Kelly is going down South to enlighten his more its m wants a Langman he will not pass you, Bro- like Geary's inaugural, must be all under appropriate heads, I shall proceed to speak

> I was shocked and disgusted to find the provided," shamefully violated in this radical city. I saw no negroes in the street cars, though I rode over the whole city. But I did see negroes frequently becken to the conductor to stop, but he "couldn't see it." And in this manner is our colored citizens, who "bore away the palm" in the late rebellion, treated by these radicals. Elsewhere, however, I observed quits a change in the deportment of the people towards this unfortunate race. At a club room where the radicals "most de congregate," I had formerly observed that when four of the members would sit down to enjoy a game of euchre for the "lemonade," the unsuccessful pair would decide, by a single game, "whose fault it was." This they then called "niggering off." I was pleased, on my present visit, to observe that this approblous epithet was no longer used; but the liberal remark was made, "Let us African off!" Our colored friends, too, feel their equality, as I observed at my hotel, for when I sent a colored waiter for anything he always made me wait too. I may add that the word black is also tabooed in respectable society, and among even first-class horse jockeys. A span of jet black horses were sold in my presence at the bazaar as a pair of colored horses.

Mindful of the desire of your lady reader o be booked on the subject of the prevailing ashions I put myself to much trouble to street the dresses worn by the ladies are much fuller than formerly—in other words. there is not near so much spare calico, and the ladies very nearly fill their dresses. They are very much dwarfed from former proportions, and two ladies can readily pass each other on the pavement; and a gentleeach other on the pavement; and a gentle-man is no longer rendered invisible in a street car by being sandwiched in between a pair of fashionable ladies. These dresses a pair of fashionable ladies. These dresses are of a neat and plain pattern, and give the wearer the shape of a time-glass. The skirt is very tastefully looped up, showing embroidered petticoat skirts, and, below these again, the ankle, encased in a well laced gaiter—the ankle reduced to its smallest denomination. White stockings are much wern—at least, the pair I saw was. I have spoken of street dresses. Trains are the order of the day and night, within doors; and they are longer than ever. On

On my way from my room to the dinner table, I set my — foot upon a ladies' train at the head of the stairs, after the owner had brought up on the landing below. She frowned indignantly, but I felt her beneath me, and did not even apologize.

But a lady's bonnet is "the head and front of her offending," and to real ise its unique beauty you must, "to the theatre go." There I went. The manner of wearing the hair

In shape they re-semble a toad-stool, though much more ornamental, and have no hole for the head, being perfectly flat on both sides. They are worn at an angle of about forty-five de-grees, one and resting on the hairy protu-berance I have been speaking of, the other on the bridge of the nose, resting slightly on the forehead.

Instead of the beads, or string of ebony or brilliants, worn around the neck and extending down to the waist, so much sported last summer, a beautiful wreath of green artificials floats gracefully over the shoulders, and down the "spine of the back," as Mrs. Partington would say.

I expect to address you again from this city, and after that you may expect to hear from me at Washington. After visiting that city, and giving you a full history of all I can see and hear, I shall start on my great northern tour to the Lakes, the Canadas, and expect to meet Aleck M'Clure in the Russian Possessions of the United States. THE LATEST AND BEST NEWS IS that R. H. Singer, who, upon his entree into our town, reduced the price of horse shoeing one-third, has determined still to lead the van, and offers to work 10 per cent. lower than the lewest for cash, and insures satisfaction. Persons needing tire on their wagons or carriages, can save dollars by giving him their work. "A dollar saved is a dollar gained," and the way to save many of them is to get your blacksmithing done with Mr. Singer, at the west end of town. Mr. S. is also sell-ing I. C. Singer's unequalled Tire and Band Bender—a machine which saves a great amount of time and labor and bends the Tire ound and true-of which Wm. Myers, of Altoons, says he would not take $100 and do without. Any amount of testimony just like that can be shown, but the machine is its own best recommendations to a mechanic. Persons wishing to purchase should call on or address R. H. Singen, Ebensburg.
